

2011 Houston Area GIS Day – Call for Presenters

What this Event is All About

Whatever your field, position, or GIS experience, be part of the knowledge-sharing and present at the 2011 Houston Area GIS Day event on November 10, 2011 at the Lone Star College – CyFair campus. Communicate to your peers about your best practices, successes, and innovative GIS applications. User presentations enrich the experience of both attendees and presenters. The sharing of insights, tips, and lessons learned, as well as the networking these sessions lead to, is unbeatable. We can't wait to hear your GIS story.

The Houston Area GIS Day event is sponsored and supported by the Houston-Galveston Area Council's (H-GAC) – Geographic Data Committee (GDC) and its member organizations. This will be the eleventh year of the Houston Area GIS Day event. The event is FREE of charge to attend or present.

Accepted presenters will receive a 30 minute time slot on Thursday; November 10, 2011 at Lone Star College – CyFair campus. Presentations will begin at 9 AM and will run through 3:30 PM. Each presenter is expected to provide a PowerPoint Presentation or similar type of Presentation. All equipment necessary (computer, projector, microphone, speaker, etc.) for the presenter will be provided the day of the event. Presenter will need to bring their PowerPoint Presentation on a CD/DVD or USB Thumb Drive the day of the event.
